

Invitation to Happiness

A Retreat for Tapping the True Source of Happiness

- Are you always "searching" for happiness?
- Are you aching for someone to complete you?
- Are you "holding out" for happiness?
- Are you endlessly trying to "please" or "achieve" your way to happiness?

If you've answered "yes" to any of these questions, you are on a path to misery. Come learn to walk the only path in this life that delivers lasting happiness!

Many people are searching for happiness. They search high and low hoping to find happiness through people, places and things.

They think to themselves "Oh, if that new guy/girl at work is Mr./Ms. Right, I'll be so happy!" or "Once I get moved to Chicago and start that new job, I'll be so happy!" or "That new BMW is going to make me so happy!"

In each such case, a person may experience a "honeymoon" sort of happiness, but inevitably the honeymoon ends. Disappointment and sadness set in. After a period of grieving, a new search for happiness begins... again ... and again ... and again; using the same old failed paths.

True lasting happiness can't be found in people, places or things. Joy and happiness are spiritual gifts. They come from within. If you are interested in learning more about how to experience these spiritual gifts, this retreat is your invitation to lasting happiness. Change your perspective and you will change your life for the better!
