The Gospel of John

Saturday, February 25, 2012

9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

A one-day Bible class on the Apostle John
Kevin Saunders

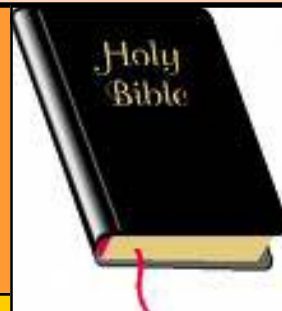

In this engaging and informative Bible Seminar, noted Bible Teacher Kevin Saunders will introduce participants to the wonders of the Gospel of John. The Gospel of John was the last written of the four canonical Gospels. As the last canonical Gospel, John gives us a unique insight into the life of Jesus. It is in the Gospel of John that we learn of the Miracle at Cana, meet the woman at the well, follow Jesus to Bethany where he call Lazarus back from the dead, and have an eyewitness account of the death of Jesus on Calvary.

Seminar participants will spend the day examining the details of the life of Jesus that are only found in this last Gospel. By the end of this lecture-based presentation you will have a profound knowledge of the Jesus the Apostle John knew and loved and of the events of his life not revealed in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke.

Kevin Saunders holds a Master's Degree in Biblical Studies from Notre Dame University. His interest in the life and times of Jesus led him and his family to Jerusalem where he worked as chaplain at the Hebrew University, leading tours and studying Scripture in the Holy Land.

The one-day study includes materials, noon meal, and all activities and presentations. Participants may choose to arrive early to attend the 7:30 a.m. Mass and enjoy breakfast at the Center for a small extra fee. The offering for the day is $45.00; $50.00 for those who choose the breakfast option. Advance registrations are required.
