

January 23, 2012

Dear Pathless Path Friends,

With sadness, I wish to inform you that Father Pat Hawk, CSsR., has now retired officially from teaching Pathless Path retreats effective Jan. 18, 2012. Father Pat has made this decision because of his declining health. We, Redemptorists and staff of the Redemptorist Renewal Center, are ever so grateful for his untiring dedication to this ministry.

As Director of the Redemptorist Renewal Center, I and Peter Tran, associate director of RRC, had a meeting recently with Father Pat regarding Pathless Path Retreats. He said there is no reason not to continue with the retreats. For this reason, we will proceed with the retreats as scheduled for 2012. In addition, with Father Pat's strong recommendation, I have appointed Carmen Paterson as coordinator of Pathless Path Retreats. Carmen will also continue to serve as RRC office assistant as well as massage therapist.

Again with Father Pat's recommendation, we will invite instructors to conduct each of the Pathless Path Retreats. We want to thank you in advance for your on-going association and commitment with us. If you have concerns or questions, please feel free to contact Peter Tran or me.

Here is the schedule of Pathless Path Retreats in 2012:

Feb. 3-5, 2012 - Zen Sesshin Weekend
Mar. 16-20, 2012 - Zen Sesshin (Friday - Tuesday)
